Plaintiff

vs.

Bob Riley et.al.,
Defendants

Case No. 2:07-CV-692-WKW

Motion For Enlargement of Time

Comes now, Aly Lee McAtee, the plaintiff in the above styled cause and moves this Honorable Court to grant this motion and in support thereof presents the following:

1. Because of limited access to Law Library resources, the total lack of typewriters and having to compete with other inmates for access to carbon paper for copying purposes, the horrendous environment, the complexity of the issues, and the length of the brief, plaintiff has need of an additional ten to fourteen days in which to prepare and respond to the supplemental Special Report filed by the defendants on 12-20-07.
2. This additional time will allow plaintiff to reproduce and retain copies of the documents which he is, at this very moment, endeavoring to prepare.
3. This enlargement is "much needed" and should not prejudice or disadvantage the defendants.

2.

Wherefore, with the foregoing premises considered, plaintiff prays that this Honorable Court will recognize the urgency of the foregoing motion and allow him an additional 10-14 day extension/enlargement in which to respond to the defendants most recent Special Report.

Respectfully Submitted this 7th day of February 2008.
